CERTIFICATE IN PREPARATION FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

Take our course as a pathway to higher education.

TIMES AND LOCATION:

September – June, full-time, based in Carlow or Dublin

Structure and range of teaching methodologies & strategies. The learning outcomes detailed above will be achieved through the following teaching methodologies:

Lectures – communication of knowledge and ideas from the lecturer to the student.

Practical Exercises – This programme will utilise supplementary learning resources (such as DVDs or computer-aided instruction, interactive websites) all of which will be available either through the LRC or through the college's Blackboard system.

Class Discussion/Debate – Students will be encouraged to actively participate in the class sessions which will develop their communication skills. Case studies will be used in class as well as mini-project assignments

E-Learning – It is envisaged that the module will be supported with on-line learning materials.

Self-Directed Independent Learning – the emphasis on independent learning will develop a strong and autonomous work and learning practises.

Minimum 4.5 IELTS entry level.

The aims of the Certificate in Preparation for Higher Education (International Foundation Programme) are;

1. to provide students with the language skills necessary to complete an undergraduate course of study through English.
2. to provide an introduction to key discipline areas.
3. to develop effective organisational skills, study skills and critical thinking skills necessary to succeed in third level education.
4. to promote an understanding and knowledge of Irish education, culture and society.
5. to enable students to make choices regarding future career and study progression.
